GREY BROTHERS MAY WIN TWO AT DELMAR

Tabby Tosa and Anadarcos Seem Likely to Capture Fourth and Fifth Races.

VESTRY IN THE THIRD.

Goldblatt Mare May Land First Money in Her Event—Radium and Judge Brady Should Be Victors.

Unless all signs fail, Tabby Tosa may be returned a winner at the Delmar track this afternoon, the little gray gelding appearing to have an excellent chance to carry off first place in the Boulevard Handicap.

If a good boy is up, who can bustle Tabby along and keep him within striking distance of the leaders, it surely seems as if first money should go to him. Weight and distance alike will favor the gray and it appears as if brackets may be credited to him after to-day's stake.

Three entries will start with their members coupled in the betting. Tom Hayes has Anne Davis and Orient as his representatives, Lubin and Hiles will start for W. W. Elliott and Neversuch and Pourquoi Pas will represent the Hughes contingent.

Of this assortment, it looks as though the Hayes pair was the most dangerous. Both mares are in at light weight and each will be favored by the route. Orient closed with such determination on her last out that she cannot be regarded as anything else but dangerous here. Anne Davis is still something of an unknown quantity.

Third money seems to be between Jack Young and Commodore, with the latter having the better chance. The distance may not suit Commodore quite so well as a slightly shorter journey, but he appears capable of getting the third place.

In the fifth it seems as if another member of the Burnett stable can be expected—and a full brother to Tabby Tosa at that. The gray gelding Anadarcos may win this race, judging from his strong finish in the last race, but he is a light weight to-day, like the route and seems the most threatening of the field. Monaco Maid may be the contender, with Zinda as the runner up.

Zinda will surely set the pace for the early stages, but it looks as if Anadarcos should show her the way across the finish this afternoon.

In the sixth, it is hard to see how Lucy Crawford can be beaten. He packs a heavy weight to carry over the route, it is true, but he seems perfectly capable of carrying his impost and winning as well.

Dollida likes a coupe track better than the footing she will find beneath her hooves at the Delmar track. She could beat Mildred for the place.

In the last race Major Carpenter seems to have a chance. Soder got him off so slowly on his last start that the golden chances were ruined. With proper handling today he may win from Ingolthrift and Potter.

Grayhound should win the third, with Milton Young and Miss Manners close up. Brener Schorr is making his first appearance of the season here and may do something to show that he is approaching his old-time form.

Grayhound is the order in which the second may result. Judge Brady is the Milan colt named after the former president of the racing association.

Flying Dutchman should be in heavy going, but may be able to repeat over the track offered to-day. Radium should win on her flash of speed, last out. Short Cake and Jolly may follow her home.

COLONIAL GIRL AN ALSO RAN.

Adriatic, Hurst Park and Ostich Heads Apart.

New York, Sept. 22.—Chryslis, at 19 to 1, won the Willow Handicap for 2-year-olds at five and one-half furlongs, at Delmar today. Handarra, the second choice, made the pace to the stretch, where Chryslis, who had been running in second place all the way, moved out and won easily by four lengths. The favorite, Hurst Park, got off badly and was never able to improve her position.

The finish in the third race between Adriatic and Jolly was very close, but Adriatic was very close and exciting. They were headed at the finish. Summary:

First race, 1 mile, 1:14.5. Adriatic, 19 to 1, won. Handarra, 2 to 1, second. Chryslis, 19 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.5. Adriatic, 19 to 1, won. Handarra, 2 to 1, second. Chryslis, 19 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.5.

NEW WORLD'S PACING RECORD

Prince Alert Goes Mile in 2:03 1/2 on Half-Mile Track With-out Shield.

Allentown, Pa., Sept. 22.—Before 1800 persons Prince Alert today established a new half-mile track record by pacing a mile in 2:03 1/2 without a shield at the Allentown Fair.

He made the same time at Bethlehem, Pa., September 19 last year, but a shield was used. His time by quarters was 29.9, 1.09, 1.21, 2.03 1/2.

Conditions to-day for fast time were perfect. The great pacer was driven by Jack Curry, and was paced by a running horse.

Just so traded his field for the early stages and seemed unable to untrack him in the rather heavy going, which still prevailed on sections of the course. King Rose loomed up as an apparently dangerous contender when Scotch Dance went to the front and saved ground on the leaders.

As they drew near the stretch turn Scotch Dance broke through promptly to the front, led to the stable turn and then went so wide that he was far in the back by the time Howell got him straightened out for home.

SCOTCH DANCE BEST IN FEATURE

With Track and Distance to His Liking, Colt Came Home Ahead of Mafalda and Just So in Handicap.

Scotch Dance had to be considerably the best to win first money in the feature race at Delmar yesterday. The Parthian colt coming home in the lead only after a tempestuous journey and a wild fight down the stretch.

With a track that favored his sensitive hoof and over a route that suited him to a nicety, Scotch Dance seemed to be overlooked for the greater part of the wagering. Presumably deeming him outclassed, the bookmakers made Just So a hot favorite, holding him at 6 to 2.

Scotch Dance proved that he was the best, however, by winning under great disadvantages. Breaking promptly to the front, led to the stable turn and then went so wide that he was far in the back by the time Howell got him straightened out for home.
